

Organization Name	Grant Amount	Project Title	Brief Summary
All Age Portland	2,000.00	All Age Portland	All Ages will produce and promote 4 all ages concerts in the Portland metro area: Rockwood, St Johns, Hosford-Abernathy and Buckman.
Boom Arts, Inc.	2,000.00	Boom Arts presents Free Outgoing	A timely play about technology, tradition and gender in today's India, at PSU's Lincoln Hall Studio Theatre in March 2016.
Center for the Arts Foundation	1,000.00	Rising Stars Project/Music Mondays	Eight free Monday evening concerts in a variety of styles, including student performances, workshops, staging, sound and lighting
Central Northeast Neighbors	2,000.00	2016 Summer Concerts in Glenhaven Park	3 - 4 free concerts in the Roseway neighborhood in July 2016
Chamber Music Northwest	1,750.00	Community Concerts	A free community concert in Gresham in partnership with Mt. Hood Community College during 2016 Summer Festival
Cinema Project	1,000.00	Free Black Cinema Series	A two-program series of experimental film and video from the past and present make by/with/about African-American artists.
Classical Revolution PDX	1,000.00	CRPDX Public Outreach Series	3 free outreach concerts in May and June 2016, featuring works by Alberto Ginastera and other Latin American composers.
Cottonwood in the Flood / The Vanport Mosaic Festival	2,000.00	Cottonwood in the Flood	Cottonwood in the Flood, a new full-length play about the African American experience in 1940's Oregon and the rapid rise and fall of the city of Vanport.
Friends of Chamber Music	1,000.00	Beethoven-Bartok Festival	Free events creating dialogue and discussion about the composers Bela Bartok and Ludwig van Beethoven and some of their significant music.
Historic Parkrose NPI	1,750.00	Taste of Parkrose	A street fair which celebrates the neighborhood's history and diversity.
Iraqi Society of Oregon	2,000.00	Al-Mutanabbi Street Starts Here!	An international exhibit -- artistic responses to the bombing of Baghdad, accompanied by programs on art and trauma and social justice with poetry readings.
King School	2,000.00	King West African Drum & Dance	West African dance performance by students, showcasing traditional dance, song, music and culture of Guinea West Africa.
Kukatnon Children's African Dance Troupe	1,500.00	Support for Kúkátónón's 2015-2016 Program & Performance Season	A dance/drumming program and performance that inspires the children in the troupe and broadens awareness of African and American African cultural traditions.
Literary Arts	2,000.00	Writers in the Schools (WITS)	1,000 Multnomah County high school students will receive free books, tickets and transportation to literary lectures and special events.
Los Portefios in c/o Miracle Theater	1,500.00	Los Portefios 10 Year Anniversary	A 10th anniversary celebration featuring lectures and reading honoring Latin American literature, local authors and emerging writers.
Make Music Day PDX, Inc.	1,250.00	Make Music Day PDX 2016	A one-day celebration on June 21 featuring numerous musicians, offering the joy of shared music.
MediaRites	1,500.00	Theatre Diaspora production of After the War Blues	A play by Philip Kan Gotanda set in a post-WWII boarding house in San Francisco, including staged readings with talkbacks.
Miracle Theatre Group	2,000.00	Milagro Community	Programming at El Centro Milagro to socialize around creative activities to engage the Latino community and address issues of concern.
Museum of Contemporary Craft	1,250.00	The Design and Craft of Prosthetics	Free public program that invites the public to design 3K prosthetic hands and explore themes of ability and disability.
NAACP Portland Branch 1120B	2,000.00	Portland Black History Project	A multi-event program exploring the city's African American heritage through the lens of history, art and culture to open dialogue about racial issues that face the city today.
Northwest Film Center	2,000.00	Heroes Magnifico	North and East Multnomah County project for low-income Latino youth that celebrates the 'everyday heroes' in their lives.
One Flaming Arrow Festival	2,000.00	One Flaming Arrow Film Festival 2016	A 4-day film festival featuring local and non-local Native American and Indigenous identified filmmakers.
Opera Theater Oregon	1,000.00	Opera Lab	A program that supports development of experimental, accessible new work in music drama.
Oregon Historical Society	1,250.00	"Beyond the Gate" Opening Ceremony and Parade	Free activities supporting OHS's 2016 Chinese American exhibits, "Chinese American: Inclusion/Exclusion" and "Beyond the Gate: A Tale of Portland's Historic Chinatowns."

Oregon Jewish Museum and Center for Holocaust Education	1,750.00	Teens and Social Justice	Programming to inspire and empower a new generation of youth to act for meaningful social change.
Parkrose Heights Assn. of Neighbors	1,750.00	East Portland Cultural Performance Series	A series of six cultural performances during the summer in locations around East Portland.
Performance Works NorthWest	2,000.00	GHOSTS	Three performances featuring Irish dancer Ruairi Donovan and Israeli dancer Asaf Aharonson, plus a free workshop in partnership with FLOCK Dance Center.
PlayWrite	2,000.00	PlayWrite in Gresham	Intensive playwriting workshop at Rosemary Anderson H.S. culminating in a public performance of their work by professional actors.
PMCB Portland Metro Concert Band	1,500.00	Special Joint Concert	Free joint music concert by the musicians of the Portland Metro Concert Band and the East County Community Orchestra.
Portland Art Museum	2,000.00	Alternative Identities—Modern Expression Youth Event	Second annual event for LGBTQ youth in partnership with the Q Center.
Portland Community Media	2,000.00	Preserving Neighborhood Cultures: Businesses that Make Portland Neighborhoods Great	Working with students from Self Enhancement Inc., a series of short documentaries on African-American owned businesses throughout North and NE Portland.
Portland Latin American Film Festival	1,000.00	PDXLAFF Monthly Screenings at The Hollywood Theatre (September-November 2016)	Supporting a three-month festival screening awarded films that explore social and cultural issues of Latin America followed by panel discussions and music.
Portland Youth Philharmonic (PYP) Association	1,000.00	Young String Ensemble Mentorship Concert	PYP's Young String Ensemble and BRAVO Orchestras' 3rd-year orchestra from Rosa Parks Elementary will produce a free joint concert.
Sisters Of The Road	2,000.00	On The Ground	Creation of a short documentary on the experience of homelessness in Portland.
Spit/WRITE	2,000.00	Street Talk - Poetically	Project with young people in St. Johns to celebrate their neighborhood and capture their dreams for the future.
Springwater Studio	1,000.00	Garden Art	This community project will increase access to affordable art as participants learn the art of gardening, create garden art and grow and maintain a community garden.
St. Johns Main Street	1,750.00	Art Constitutional	A free, grassroots street fair featuring artworks, performances, demonstrations and art-making activities.
White Bird	2,000.00	The Arts and Culture of Cuba	In collaboration with Portland Public Schools, a multidisciplinary curriculum inspired by Cuba's Malpaso Dance Company.
Write Around Portland	1,500.00	Write Around Community Reading	A free public reading to bring workshop participants' writing to audiences.
YWCA of Greater Portland	1,000.00	East County Cinco de Mayo Celebrations for Seniors	A Cinco de Mayo celebration to engage community members, especially the elderly and those in social isolation or with mobility issues.